

The Georgia Memory Net exists to speed diagnosis of Alzheimer's disease and related dementias in symptomatic individuals. Not having a diagnosis limits access to appropriate care and resources that can improve quality of life for affected Georgians.

Here's how the program works:

